Qadri et al

v.

Chu

v.

Beyers et al

v.

Batlogg et al

The following motions are considered herein:

- (1) Qadri et al motion for access (Paper No. 20).
- (2) Beyers et al motion for access (Paper No. 21).
- (3) Batlogg et al motion for access (Paper No. 23).

The foregoing motions are all granted for the reasons given in support thereof and in view of the indications that they will not be opposed.

In Paper No. 19 the Chu motion for access was granted, and the paper inadvertently indicated that the application for which access was sought was 21,229. The motion actually requested access to application 001,682. The error is regretted.
